As Result of Pacific Pact None May Expect War There in Future

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The United States joined in the praises of Rt. Hon. A. J. Everyone has gained by these labors; no representative will return to his homeland unable to claim to have defended the interests of the world and thereby the interests of his particular people."

Lord Desborough presided over the dinner and read a response from the king expressing thanks for a loyal message, "a united expression from the hearts of American and British citizens met today to do honor to the brave British delegate returning home."

The King's message said in part: "With universal thankfulness for the services rendered by the American people and the American Government in the great struggle for the freedom of the world."

tion there must go forth feelings of grateful recognition to the president of the United States. He was the originator of the conference and the world is immeasurably indebted to him for the initiation of his great era.

CANADIAN PEACE-TIME HEROES

The Pacificers had no role to cover in this was nothing in the Amari code, forcing men to rescue their brethren drowning at sea, but there is in the heart of every British seaman, born of tradition, which does not permit him to pass by without aiding fellow seafarers in distress.

When the call went out from the French liner Hain Tien asking for assistance April on the coast of China the crew of the Canadian Pacific liner Montague heard the S.O.S. and hurried to the assistance of the fast sinking vessel.

It was in recognition of this act of bravery on the part of both the white and Chinese members of the crew of the Montague that the presentation of the Liverpool Daily Post and Humane Society medals and certificates were made recently aboard the boat as she lay at the company's dock in Vancouver.

Lieut. W. C. McNeil made the presentation in well directed and impressive language. Particularly did the lieutenant-governor pay attention to the boys receiving the medals admonishing them to even greater things in the future.

Official Friend of Men.

Proud of the work of their men the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company planned the presentation, having all company officials, present and many prominent business men of the city.

In the absence of J. Vaux, assistant manager, Mrs. Vaux received her husband's medals and certificates.

The C.P.R. recognized the bravery of the Chinese by monetary medals and letters appraising them of the company's appreciation.

The story of the rescue is a thrilling one, though the reports of the officers of the Montague are not devoted to long light descriptions simply with an outline of the actions taken.

On April 7, noon the left Hong Kong. By midnight of that date the wind had increased to strong head winds and rough sea. On April 8 the wind continued and the sea was high, the vessel pitching and spraying the sea.

At this time a steamer was sighted flying signals of distress. It was in recognition of this act of bravery on the part of both the white and Chinese members of the crew of the Montague that the presentation of the Liverpool Daily Post and Humane Society medals and certificates were made recently aboard the boat as she lay at the company's dock in Vancouver.
